

U.S. Department of Justice

Federal Bureau of Investigation

Washington, D. C. 20535-0001

March 17, 2010

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]:

Your letters dated December 17, 2009, and enclosures, and February 27, 2010, with enclosure, to the Special Agent Clearance Unit concerning your appeal for reconsideration regarding the Technical Information Specialist position with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), have been referred to me for a response.

Your interest in employment with the FBI is appreciated. However, as you have furnished no new information to mitigate the factors which caused your processing to be discontinued, I must advise you that the decision to rescind our conditional job offer is reaffirmed and your appeal is denied. Please be assured that the decision was based on another careful review of your background and processing information. Our hiring policies provide no further avenues for you to pursue with this organization.

I know this decision is disappointing to you. Please be assured that your request has been made a matter of record to be included in your official applicant file. I wish you well in your future professional endeavors.

Sincerely yours,

Mark A. Gant
