EXPERIENCE

Andrew G. Watters, Esq., Redwood City, CA

Owner (July 2012 to present) (F/T)

Operate and manage a small law firm (four attorneys and three administrative professionals) handling aggressively litigated general civil and complex family law matters, including numerous trials, depositions, hearings, and appeals/writs, with 80+ cases pending at any moment. Conduct complex private investigations, including homicide and corporate espionage. Handle all manner of litigation proceedings independently and with support from employees and Of Counsel attorneys, and also on an Of Counsel basis for area law firms. Attorneys served: Coddington, Hicks & Danforth, P.C., Redwood City, CA (A/V) (June 2016 to January 2017; May 2022 to November 2023)—work on insurance defense cases; SAC Attorneys, LLP, San Jose, CA (July 2013 to May 2016)—handle all of the firm’s civil litigation, including multiple trials, and supervise two associate attorneys and support staff; Law Offices of Parviz Darabi, Burlingame, CA (March 2013 to January 2017)—work on plaintiffs’ consumer fraud and employment cases.

WealthPLAN LLP, San Jose, CA (A/V)

Litigation Attorney (January 2011 to July 2012) (F/T)

Handled general civil and estate and trust litigation matters, including creditors’ claim lawsuits, that arose from firm’s specialized estate planning and trust administration practice. Took depositions of adverse parties and witnesses. Presented probate and trust-related petitions. Investigated and developed matters for trial, including extensive review of financial and other records, coordination with expert witnesses such as accountants and appraisers, client interviews, and written discovery. In March 2011, second-chaired $7 million two-day court trial, including trial direct and cross examination of opposing party. Supervised by Francis B. Doyle, Esq. (A/V).

Robinson & Wood, Inc., San Jose, CA (A/V)

Litigation Attorney (April 2010 to December 2010) (F/T)

Assisted in the handling of insurance defense matters (70%), plaintiffs’ personal injury/wrongful death matters (15%), and commercial litigation (15%). Took depositions of fact witnesses, including parties. Investigated and developed matters for trial. Conducted all necessary law and motion work and discovery, including Motions for Summary Adjudication. Supervised by Joseph C. Balestrieri, Esq. (A/V). Note: my time there was brief due to the firm’s downsizing/layoffs.

O'Brien Watters & Davis LLP, Santa Rosa, CA (A/V)

Litigation Attorney (February 2006 to May 2009) (F/T)

Handled general civil litigation (50%) and high-asset family law matters (50%). Worked up and tried (second chair) plaintiffs' fraud/financial elder abuse matter from client intake in Fall 2006 to ten-day jury trial in April 2009. Presented three days of trial direct and re-direct examinations of two expert witnesses. Worked up an aggressively litigated $56 million Dissolution of Marriage involving financial irregularities, partnership valuation issues, a forty-three year marriage with a sixteen year separation, reverse-Pereira claims, stipulated distributions of multiple millions of dollars of property, and numerous motions, from intake in February 2006 to departure in May 2009. In 2008, presented (first chair) five-day Feldman motion, conducted substantially as a trial, seeking $933,000 in attorney fees and sanctions under Family Code sec. 271 and sec. 2107. In 2006, tried (second chair) ten day jury trial for defendant general contractor in construction defect matter. In 2008, tried (first chair) and prevailed in court trial in dispute between firm and former client over professional fees. Assisted in dividing $25 million in assets and resolving issues at five-day mediation. Prepared ninety-page property narrative from public records and aerial photography, proving community characterization by tracing property transactions and construction over a sixty year period (1948-2008). Took and defended thirty-two depositions; eight party or party-affiliated depositions defended. Prepared, filed, and argued all types of motions and orders to show cause. Handled all written discovery and filed or opposed all discovery motions. Interviewed, hired, and interfaced with expert witnesses. Supervised legal secretary and law clerk. Argued before First District Court of Appeal in free speech matter. Analyzed outpatient imaging center and ambulatory surgery center program model for 45-physician medical group under Federal "Stark II" regulation in 2007. Supervised by Michael G. Watters, Esq. (A/V) (2/23/2006-12/31/2008); by Joseph A. Piasta, Esq. (A/V) (1/1/2009- 5/29/2009). Published case: Bonfigli v. Strachan (2011) 192 Cal. App. 4th 1302 (trial counsel).
